DON’T GIVE YOUR IDENTITY AWAY

Banks and the University would never email asking you to re-confirm your password or account information.

Ignore and delete ‘phishing’ messages to your work or personal email however real they look. These emails are fraudulent and the sender wants to steal your identity and/or money.

For more about staying safe online see

http://www.leeds.ac.uk/informationsecurity